

The Center for the Study of Inequalities,
Social Justice, and Policy Presents:

WE CHARGE GENOCIDE: CRIMINAL JUSTICE AND INJUSTICE
IN CHICAGO TODAY AND YESTERDAY

Tuesday, April 3, 2018

4:00 pm

Humanities 1006

Featuring:

Toussaint Losier

Assistant Professor

University of Massachusetts, Amherst;
co-author of Rethinking the American Prison Movement (Routledge, 2017)

with Dan Berger

Mariame Kaba

Organizer, educator and curator who is active in movements for racial, gender, and transformative justice. She is the founder and director of Project NIA, a grassroots organization with a vision to end youth incarceration.

For more information, visit

inequality.studies.stonybrook.edu/wordpress

Stony Brook University College of Arts and Sciences